DECLARATION OF BILJANA OBRENIC

- I, Biljana Obrenic, being duly sworn, state as follows:
- 1. My name is Biljana OBrenic and I am a Senior Manager Standards & Compliance in the Ground Operations Department at Southwest Airlines Co. ("Southwest").
- 2. As part of my duties as a Senior Manager in Ground Operations, I am knowledgeable of Southwest's business, policies, manuals, and training relating to Southwest's ground operations, including duties performed by employees such as Customer Service Agents, Operations Agents, Ramp Agents, and Provisioning Agents (collectively, "Ground Operations Employees").
- 3. The Ground Operations Department publishes and regularly updates the Ground Operations Manual ("GOM") for its employees. Section 6 of the GOM explains: "The Operations Department is the 'nerve center' of each Station. An Operations Agent or Above the Wing Supervisor interacts with many departments at Southwest Airlines. This Teamwork produces the safe, efficient, and ontime operation that makes our Company profitable and successful.

Everything the Operations Agent does while turning a flight is closely scrutinized by our valued Customers."

- 4. Ground Operations Employees at Southwest's airport stations include both "Above Wing" and "Below Wing" employees. "Above the Wing" employees include the Customer Service Agents and the Operations Agents at the airport. "Below the Wing" employees include the Ramp Agents and Provisioning Agents at the airport.
- 5. The Ground Operations Manual ("GOM") provides guidance and policies for the Ground Operations Employees. The GOM refers to either "Through (Transit) Customers" or "Thru Customers" as Passengers that are completing a two-leg trip but staying on the same aircraft in the connecting city.
- 6. The GOM also refers to a "Connecting Customer" as a passenger that is completing a two-leg trip but will change planes in the connecting city.
 - 7. Chapter 7 of the GOM covers "Baggage."
 - a. Chapter 7.2.2 refers to procedures for, among other things, "Checked Baggage" and "Baggage Checkin Procedures" such that a Customer Service Agent must "Verify the Customer's final destination by asking, 'What is your final destination?"" (in step 1) and also to "Confirm the number of bags and destination by stating to the Customer, "I am checking 'X' number of bags to [the final destination] . . ."
 - 8. Chapter 6 of the GOM covers "Operations".
 - a. Chapter 6.1 refers to "Preflight Planning" and procedures for the Operations Agents to "maintain safety and avoid . . . inaccurate Loading Summaries/Dispatch Reports, and unnecessary delays."

- b. Chapter 6.2.5 refers to "Turning the Flight" and procedures for, among other things, the Operations Agent to complete such as "Inform a Flight Attendant of the number of through (transit) Customers that should be onboard" (in step 4), the "Anticipated Customer Count" along with "Planned Delays for Inbound Connecting Customers" (in step 10) and "Verification of the transit count" (in step 13).
- c. Chapter 6.2.5.7 refers to "Resolving Inaccurate Passenger Counts on Board" where it may be necessary to reconcile the final onboard count to ensure the passenger manifest is accurate, along with a series of procedures to follow to verify the passenger count (going onboard aircraft to check IDs) or identify missing Customers (by making page calls in airport terminal).
- 9. The sections of the GOM referenced above are attached as Exhibit D-1.
- 10. As explained below, when a Southwest customer travels on a flight booked through Kiwi.com, it causes operational and customer challenges with several parts of the GOM. For example, in recent months, Ground Operations Employees have submitted reports or notified supervisors about operational challenges caused by itineraries booked through Kiwi.com. One particular challenge at the airport station involves Kiwi.com's sale of "hidden city" tickets that are expressly prohibited in Southwest's Contract of Carriage. Kiwi.com's hidden city booking negatively impacts Southwest's operations and customers.
- 11. When Southwest travelers book through Kiwi.com and are traveling on "hidden city" fares, a passenger's intended final destination is not the final arrival city on his or her itinerary, but rather an intermediate or connecting city. In its simplest form, a passenger purchases a ticket from City 1 to City 2 to City 3, but does not travel beyond City 2.

- 12. Southwest prohibits this practice because of logistical, operational, and public safety concerns. For example, in compliance with the GOM, a Ground Operations Employee will attempt to locate a connecting passenger (or "through" passenger) for the final leg of the flight -- yet that passenger has ended his or her trip in the connecting city. This negatively affects Southwest's ability to estimate passenger headcounts, causes disruptions at the airport gate, and requires maintenance adjustments, such as variations in the amount of jet fuel needed for each flight. It also leads to flight delays and disruptions that can negatively impact other passengers on the flight and disrupt to Southwest's flight schedule.
- 13. Below are examples of problems and reports from Ground Operation Employees involving passengers with a Kiwi.com reservation ("Kiwi Passengers"). The records attached to this declaration as Exhibit D-2 through D-11 are true and accurate copies of Southwest operational records that were made and kept in the regular course of Southwest's business. The records were made at or near the time of the information recorded by a person with knowledge of the underlying facts. It is the regular practice of Southwest to record the information set forth in the attached records.
- 14. When Kiwi Passengers arrive at the airport to check in for their flight, their ticketed destination (on a two-leg flight) is different from their intended destination. Often times when a Kiwi Passenger gets a boarding pass at the airport, the passenger does not understand why he or she received two boarding passes (for flight #1 and flight #2) when they only intend to take a direct flight (only flight #1).
- 15. An Assistant Station Manager at the New York LaGuardia (LGA) airport sent an email on November 27, 2020 that detailed operational challenges with a Kiwi reservation that was booked as a two-leg trip with Flight 135 (LGA-ATL) and then Flight 379 (ATL-RSW) under PNR P2L8P5, however, the Customer intended ATL as the final destination. See Exhibit D-2.

- 16. An Assistant Station Manager at LGA airport sent an email on December 24, 2020, that detailed operational challenges with a Kiwi reservation that was booked as a two-leg trip on December 23, 2020 with Flight 3068 (LGA-ATL) and then Flight 4735 (ATL-MCO) under PNR 2BHD3Z, but the Customer intended ATL as the final destination. See Exhibit D-2.
- 17. An Assistant Station Manager in New York (LGA) sent an email on January 1, 2021, that detailed operational challenges with a Kiwi reservation that was booked as a two-leg trip from LGA to BNA and then from BNA to MCO under PNR 47MS26, however, the Customer intended BNA as the final destination. See Exhibit D-3. Bernard's email reports that the customer's fare was $48.98, however, Kiwi reportedly charged the customer $200 for the ticket.
- 18. An Assistant Station Manager in New York (LGA) sent an email on January 1, 2021, that detailed operational challenges with a Kiwi reservation that was booked as a two-leg trip from LGA to DEN and then from DEN to MDW under PNR 3VVIXA, but the customer reportedly intended PDX as the final destination. See Exhibit D-3.
- 19. An employee at Phoenix (PHX) airport reported about customer confusion on a reservation (PNR 4V57N6) booked as a two-leg trip with flight 1281 (PHX-OAK) and then flight 4096 (OAK-SEA) where the customer intended OAK as the final destination but "went through 3rd party Kiwi travel" without knowing the customer was "booked through to SEA." See Exhibit D-4.
- 20. On February 2, 2021, a Customer Service Agent in Phoenix sent an email to the station leadership that "we are seeing [hidden city tickets] frequently, and the common theme is Kiwi Travel" while also noting the Customer Service Agents "are overwhelming us with emails and copies of itineraries involving Kiwi." See Exhibit D-5.

- 21. On February 2, 2021, a Customer Service Agent in Las Vegas sent an email to my team and Ground Operations leadership detailing certain operational challenges with customers that booked through Kiwi.com that did not realize they were booked on a hidden city ticket. See Exhibit D-6.
- On February 5, 2021, a Customer Service Agent in New York (LGA) reported an operational and customer service challenge with customers that booked through Kiwi and did not realize they were traveling on a hidden city ticket. Southwest's records showed that a number of customers were travelling from LGA-TPA-MIA. Due to an aircraft swap, Southwest needed to re-book the passengers flying on this LGA-TPA-MIA route. However, when Southwest notified the passengers of the change in their itinerary, the passengers explained that TPA was their final destination. This situation resulted in operational and customer service confusion and other challenges. See Exhibit D-7.
- 23. When Kiwi Passengers arrive at the airport to check baggage for a hidden city flight, they are surprised to learn that their ticketed destination (on a two-leg flight) is different from their intended destination. This causes operational problems for Southwest because Southwest's policy requires that a Passenger's checked baggage travel to his or her final destination. On or about February 2, 2021, the Ground Operations Department sent an update to Customer Service Agents and Above Wing leaders with the subject line "Checking Bags to Final Destination" that detailed how Southwest is seeing "an increase in Customers attempting to short checked their baggage" along with a reminder about polices in Chapter 7 of the GOM. See Exhibit D-8.

- 24. On February 16, 2021, a Customer Service Agent in New York (LGA airport) sent an email explaining "I had never experienced such a unpleasant times as customers book through this website called Kiwi/Skiplag" and noted "[a]s they come here they try to check bags to their final destination which is the connecting city not final destination as the ticket was booked, some customers cry, argue, get uncomfortable." See Exhibit D-9. The Southwest CSA also noted in her email: "[t]his doesn't look good for Southwest Airlines as an airline as well for us not providing good customer service as well not good hospitality and is not the customers fault is this website called Kiwi/skiplag selling tickets at cheaper rate."
- 25. When Kiwi Passengers are traveling on hidden city tickets, they do not complete the second leg of their ticketed itinerary. Some airport managers have reported difficulty in trying to locate Kiwi Passengers for the connecting flight. This causes operational problems for Southwest because Southwest's GOM requires employees to complete a thru count for connecting passengers before the second flight departs.
- 26. On January 1, 2020, the Station Manager at the Portland, Oregon (PDX) station reported to a Station Director that they could not locate two passengers travelling on a ticketed itinerary on December 31, 2020 (MDW-PDX-SJC) for the second leg of their trip (the PDX-SJC flight). The Kiwi Passengers were travelling on PNR WM76YE booked through Kiwi.com. See Exhibit D-10. The Station Manager at PDX reported that Southwest was expecting 16 Customers to ride through PDX on to SJC on flight 4084. The through count was off by 2 and Southwest had to check ID's of all passengers to determine who was missing. Once the Station Manager at PDX identified the two missing passengers, the PDX station began paging throughout the airport to return to the departure gate and eventually discovered the 2 Kiwi customers were in baggage claim stating that PDX was their final destination and they weren't returning to the flight. Flight 4084 took a delay as the PDX station sorted through the connecting passengers and identified the Kiwi passengers.

- 27. Southwest recently has been forced to take multiple flight delays due to issues or problems with reservations associated with Kiwi Passengers, including at least these flights:
 - a. On December 31, 2020, Southwest flight 4084 (from PDX to SJC) was delayed due to operational challenges with Kiwi passengers traveling on a hidden city ticket. It had delay code TR-04. See Ex. D-10.
 - b. On January 1, 2021, Southwest flight 3348 (from LGA to ATL) was delayed due to operational challenges with Kiwi passengers traveling on a hidden city ticket. It had delay code CM-02. See Ex. D-11.
 - c. On January 28, 2021, Southwest flight 3792 (from LGA to MDW) was delayed due to operational challenges with Kiwi passengers traveling on a hidden city ticket. It had delay code TR-13. See Ex. D-12.
 - d. On February 20, 2021, Southwest flight 135 (from LGA to ATL) was delayed due to operational challenges with Kiwi passengers traveling on a hidden city ticket.
- 28. Southwest has recently received increasing problems relating to customers who purchased Southwest flights through Kiwi, including confused customers, logistical complications, and overwhelmed customer service agents. See Ex. D-14 to D-17.
- 29. I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts and information stated in this declaration are true and correct based on my personal knowledge and reliable information I obtained as a representative of Southwest.

6 Operations

Revised: 06/05/2019

The Operations Department is the "nerve center" of each Station. An Operations Agent or Above the Wing Supervisor interacts with many departments at Southwest Airlines. This Teamwork produces the safe, efficient, and ontime operation that makes our Company profitable and successful. Everything the Operations Agent does while turning a flight is closely scrutinized by our valued Customers.

The subsections of 6 contain information regarding Operations.

6.1 Preflight Planning

Revised: 05/01/2019

Proper communication and preplanning by the Operations Agent are essential in order to maintain safety and avoid potentially critical overgross situations, inaccurate Loading Summaries/Dispatch Reports, and unnecessary delays. Operations Agents are required to always comply with procedures and preplan every flight.

The purpose of preplanning the flight is to:

- Ensure that the determined Maximum Zero Fuel Weight (MZFW) and Allowable Takeoff Gross Weight (ATOG) are not exceeded.
- Ensure the aircraft is within center of gravity limits.
- Determine the allowable fuel in a tanker situation.

Note: No Southwest Airlines aircraft may depart if the MZFW or ATOG is exceeded.

6.1.1 Viewing the OTIS Flight Release Dialog Box

Revised: 04/04/2018

The release information dialog box provides quick access to key values that assist with preflight planning. The key values on the dialog box are:

- Operational empty weight (OEW)
- Allowable takeoff gross (ATOG)
- Actual takeoff weight (TOW)
- Include Release checkbox
- Include Weather checkbox

The buttons on the dialog box provide the ability to print, view, and close the dialog box. Check the Include Release and/or Include Weather checkboxes to include those items when using the View RIs or Print buttons.

Operations Agents must communicate with Dispatch, Ramp Agents, Cargo facilities, Customer Service Agents, and other departments regarding the following:

- Planned fuel
- Planned passenger load
- Projected commodities load
- Operational empty weight
- Planned runway, temperature, and weather conditions
- Planned alternate cities and appropriate METAR and TAF information for each
- Weight restrictions
- Transfer passenger counts
- Through load discrepancies
- Revised commodities weights

6.1.2 Preflight Formula for Tanker Fuel Situations

Revised: 06/20/2013

To determine the allowable fuel in a tanker situation for a flight, perform the following preflight check:

1. Determine Zero Fuel Weight (ZFW): ZFW = Projected Customers + Projected Commodities + Operational Empty Weight

6.2.5 Turning the Flight

Revised: 11/04/2020

[14 CFR Part 121,393][14 CFR Part 121,589]

WARNING: Always wear hearing protection when an aircraft is arriving at the gate.

The following procedure is completed by an Operations Agent:

1. Verify the aircraft registration/nose number. Guide the jetbridge to the aircraft after the aircraft wheels are chocked. Refer to 6.16 Jetbridge Operation for jetbridge procedures.

Note: If during irregular operations a B737-800 must be deplaned (e.g., gate return, gate delay, aircraft maintenance), notify the Ramp to re-install the B737-800 tail stand. Once the Ramp verifies the tail stand is in place, Passenger deplaning may begin.

Note: When conducting boarding/deplaning operations using airstairs, ensure operational safety and airport requirements are met.

Note: Refer to 2.27 Landing Gear Wheel and Tire Changes During Loading and Unloading for information regarding Customer boarding/deplaning and commodity loading/unloading during an aircraft tire change. CAUTION: Engines must be shut down prior to opening the door, and at least one floor-level exit (usually the L1 door) must remain open during the turn.

- 2. Open the L1 door after the "A" Flight Attendant has removed the red flag and the door is cracked open. Refer to 6.2.4 Opening and Closing the Aircraft Entry Door for more information.
- Coordinate the deplaning of any Unaccompanied Minors (UMs) with the "A" Flight Attendant. Refer to 4.2.3.4
 Deplaning UMs for UMNR procedures.
- 4. Inform a Flight Attendant of the number of through (transit) Customers that should be onboard.
- 5. Give the Captain the inbound Dispatch Report (DR) to write down Pilot On, Pilot In, and Fuel In information. Collect the Master Flight Plan (Class II and ETOPS) and, when applicable, the paper plotting charts (ETOPS).
 - Note: During turns, the aircraft may be left on gate services without Pilots on board if all of the conditions listed in 6.2.2.2 Aircraft on Gate Services Without Pilots Present are met.
 - Note: During deplaning, the Flight Attendant complement may be reduced to one Flight Attendant onboard B737-700 aircraft. On B737-800/B737 MAX8 aircraft, the Flight Attendant complement may be reduced to two Flight Attendants onboard.
 - Note: During a Flight Attendant Crew change when Customers remain onboard, one inbound Flight Attendant must remain onboard B737-700 aircraft and two inbound Flight Attendants must remain onboard B737-800/B737 MAX8 aircraft until the outbound Flight Attendants board.
 - Note: If advised that Alternative Offload Procedure is being used because the B737-800 tail stand could not be installed, monitor deplaning and notify the Ramp when the last Passenger has deplaned.
- 6. In OTIS, enter Ops In, verify ACARS populated Fuel In.
 - Note: In the event of an ACARS outage, enter the Pilot On, Pilot In, and Fuel In information as indicated by the Captain on the inbound DR.
- 7. For departures to Hawaii, ensure the Hawaii forms kit is delivered to the aircraft.
- Replace the trash can(s) in the galley(s) with a double-lined trash can and ice (if required). Refer to 5.25 Provisioning at Non-Provisioning Stations and 5.25.6 Hand Washing and Gloves Procedures for more information.

Note: Operations Agents must not impede the deplaning process when servicing the FWD G7 galley.

9. Give the Weather Packet and three copies of the Dispatch Release to the Flight Deck Crew.

Note: Four copies of the Dispatch Release are required for Class II and ETOPS flights.

10. Communicate and Collaborate

When able, a brief conversation between Captains and Operations Agents prior to the start of boarding can also benefit from the inclusion of a quick discussion of other factors that, if relevant to a specific flight, may affect its targeted departure. Examples of such items include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Anticipated Customer Count
- Planned Delays for Inbound Connecting Customers

- Potential Weight Issues
- MEL or Maintenance Issues
- Jumpseat Riders (Cabin or Flight Deck)
- Federal Air Marshals, LEOs or Federal Flight Deck Officers (FFDOs)
- Weather Challenges/Deicing
- Ticket Counter or TSA Checkpoint Issues
- Batteries for power-assisted devices that will be loaded in cargo bins
- Aircraft Servicing
- 11. Assist with claim-at-gate items and assistive devices stowed onboard (e.g., walkers, crutches, wheelchairs). Refer to 4.3.12 Equipment Stowage for more information regarding stowing assistive devices onboard.

Note: When a claim-at-gate item is brought to the jetbridge at the final destination, the WN-392 Claim At Gate Tag should be removed and discarded. Leaving a WN-392 on an item after it is returned to the Customer may cause security concerns.

Note: For additional assistive device procedures in Cuba, refer to 11.5.4 Baggage Procedures.

12. Ensure that fueling has begun.

WARNING: In accordance with the National Fire Prevention Association Document 407-9, Section 2-13, "If passengers remain onboard the aircraft during fuel service, at least one qualified person trained in emergency evacuation procedures shall be in the aircraft, at or near a door at which there is a passenger loading walkway, integral stairs which are down, or a passenger loading stair or stand." A NO SMOKING sign shall be displayed in the cabin and the rule enforced. Additionally, fueling must not commence unless the L1 door is open.

- 13. Deliver two copies of the Flight Attendant Information sheet and conduct a preflight briefing with the "A" Flight Attendant to discuss the following information:
 - On originators (first flight of the day), notify the Flight Attendants if minimum photoluminescent floor emergency lighting charge time is not met and advise of the remaining time to meet the minimum charge requirement. Refer to 6.2.1.1 Photoluminescent Floor Emergency Lighting for more information.

Note: Overhead bin doors must remain closed during charging time.

- Adverse weather conditions/weather advisories that are in effect.
- Number of Customers boarding.
- Use of dual door boarding (if applicable).
- The need to perform three-zone calculations and the use of the WN-1204 Passenger Count Worksheet—B737-800/MAX8 (if on a B737-800/MAX8 aircraft), and if a specific Passenger distribution is necessary.

Note: For B737-800 or B737 MAX8 aircraft, when using a one-zone passenger count or moving commodities does not bring the aircraft within balance limits, a three-zone count can be used.

- Number of Customers needing extra time and families (two adults traveling with children age six and under) boarding between the A and B groups.
- Any groups that need to sit together.
- Number of UMs boarding.
- Number of Customers with additional seats (e.g., Customer of size, Customer with a disability, Customer with a pet and a portable oxygen concentrator [POC]).
- Number of Law Enforcement Officers (LEOs) carrying weapons who are boarding (excluding FAMs).
- Any FAMs and FFDOs boarding the flight.
- Number of Customers with POCs and whether the Customers intend to use the devices during flight and during taxi, takeoff, in the air, and landing. Also inform the Captain. Refer to 6.2.5.11 Portable Oxygen Concentrators for procedures for boarding these Customers.
- Number of law enforcement and search and rescue dogs.
- Number of pets in the cabin.
- Verification of transit count.
- Verification that the gate area has been scanned for oversized and excess items.

Rev #21-01 01/28/2021 Appx. 442

- Prior to re-boarding, verbally confirm with the "A" Flight Attendant that all Flight Attendants are onboard the aircraft, in position, and ready to begin boarding.
- 3. Re-board Customers in CM following established boarding procedures.

Original boarding passes may be scanned or Customers may be manually boarded after verifying their identification.

- Customers should board in the following order:
 - A. Customers with disabilities requiring preboarding.
 - B. Transit Customers.
 - C. Local Customers beginning with Business Select Customers. Make every effort to maintain the boarding integrity.

6.2.5.6 Operational Need for Deboarding of Through (Transit) Customers Revised: 12/04/2019

[14 CFR Part 382.93]

At intermediate stops, through (transit) Customers are not required to deplane the aircraft unless it is determined to be operationally necessary by Network Operations Control (NOC).

On flights with scheduled Flight Crew changes where the new Flight Crew has not yet reported, advise the inbound Flight Crew of the expected arrival time of the new Flight Crew, and request that they stay with the aircraft.

Before the Pilot agrees to stay:

- The Pilot(s) must call Crew Scheduling to verify legalities, especially if it is at the end of his duty day.
- Crew Scheduling verifies the Pilot's legality, and if illegal, the Pilot notifies the Operations Agent.

If the Pilot does not agree to stay with the inbound aircraft:

- Contact the Chief Pilot NOC at (469) 603-0405 to discuss the situation.
- Crew Scheduling verifies legalities with the Pilot.

Note: If it is determined that Flight Crews are required to stay with the transit Customers, they may contact Crew Scheduling to have their extended time recorded.

If deplaning is required, the Operations Agent must deboard all transit Customers in Altea Customer Management. Refer to 6.2.5.5 Boarding Procedures for Aircraft Swaps

6.2.5.7 Resolving Inaccurate Passenger Counts on Board

Revised: 02/05/2020

In situations where a passenger count is required, (i.e., transit Customers, zone count, system outage, Pilot request) it may be necessary to reconcile the final onboard count to ensure the passenger manifest is accurate.

When there is a discrepancy with either the transit passenger count or the final onboard passenger count, the Operations Agent must take the following steps to resolve it.

Inaccurate Transit Customer Counts

Upon arrival of the flight:

- Give the Flight Attendants the expected transit count.
- Confirm the final transit count with the Flight Attendant after all local Passengers deplane.
- If the transit count is inaccurate, have the Flight Attendants recount the Passengers.

If the final count is still inaccurate, verify Customers of Size and Lap Children using the Onboard Service list and check for Flight Deck Jumpseat Observers and Cabin Jumpseat Riders.

Inform the Customer Service Agent (CSA) of the transit count status.

Note: Contact additional help to verify Passengers on the aircraft (if needed).

If the transit count is over:

- Print the Transit Customer List from Altea Customer Management (CM), which is generated by selecting Boarded Customers (BOARDED) from the Customer List menu, then selecting Transit Only from the Customer Filter dropdown field in the Restrict Customer List menu.
- B. Make an announcement onboard the aircraft that an Operations Agent will come through the cabin to confirm Passenger names, and ask Passengers to have their boarding passes or identification available.
- Ask each Passenger for his boarding pass or identification to verify against the Transit Customer List.

Rev #21-01 01/28/2021

- D. If a Passenger's name is not on the Transit Customer List or the Passenger refuses to identify himself, ask the Passenger to collect all of his belongings and deplane in order to reconcile the situation.
- E. Inform the CSA of additional Passengers onboard and advise him to verify each additional Passenger's PNR information.

If the transit count is under:

- A. Confirm with the Flight Attendants that the lavatories are not occupied.
- B. Print the Transit Customer List from CM, which is generated by selecting Boarded Customers (BOARDED) from the Customer List menu, then selecting Transit Only from the Customer Filter dropdown field in the Restrict Customer List menu.
- C. Make an announcement onboard the aircraft that an Operations Agent will come through the cabin to confirm Passenger names, and ask Passengers to have their boarding passes or identification available.
- D. Ask each Passenger for his boarding pass or identification to verify against the Transit Customer List.
- E. Once any missing Passengers are identified, make a final onboard page for the missing Customers. If there is a positive response onboard, verify the Customer's identity during a face-to-face conversation with the Customer.

Note: A raised hand or lighted call button must not be used as confirmation that the Customer is on board the aircraft.

- F. Ask the CSA to verify each missing Customer's PNR.
- G. Make a page in the gate area for the missing Customers.
- H. Ask the CSA to make an airport page for the missing Customer.

Resolving Inaccurate Passenger Counts

- 1. Request a final passenger count from the Flight Attendant after all Passengers board the aircraft.
- If the final passenger count does not reconcile with the Boarded Customer list in CM, request that the Flight Attendants recount the Passengers.

Note: If the final count is still inaccurate, verify Customers of Size and Lap Children using the Onboard Service list and check for Flight Deck Jumpseat Observers and Cabin Jumpseat Riders.

- 3. Inform the CSA of the final passenger count status.
- 4. Contact additional help to verify Passengers on the aircraft (if needed).

If the count is over:

- A. Print the Boarded Customer List from CM.
- B. Make an announcement onboard the aircraft that an Operations Agent will come through the cabin to confirm Passenger names, and ask Passengers to have their boarding passes or identification available.
- C. Ask each Passenger for his boarding pass or identification to verify against the Boarded Customer List.
 - Note: If a Passenger's name is not on Boarded Customer List and the Passenger cannot present a boarding pass, or the Passenger refuses to identify himself, ask the Passenger to collect all of his belongings and deplane in order to reconcile the situation.
 - Note: If a Passenger has a boarding pass for the flight in his possession but his name does not appear on the Boarded Customer List, return to the gate podium to manually board the Passenger prior to closing the L1 door.
- D. Inform the CSA of additional Passengers onboard and advise him to verify the additional Passenger's PNR information.

If the count is under:

- A. Confirm with the Flight Attendant that the lavatories are not occupied.
- B. Print the Boarded Customer List from CM.
- C. Make an announcement onboard the aircraft that an Operations Agent will come through the cabin to confirm Passenger names, and ask Passengers to have their boarding passes or identification available.
- D. Ask the Passenger for his boarding pass or identification to verify against the Boarded Customer List.
- E. Once any missing Passengers are identified, make a final onboard page for the missing Customers.
- F. Ask the CSA to verify each missing Customer's PNR.

- G. Make a page in the gate area for the missing Customers.
- H. Ask the CSA to make an airport page for the missing Customers.
- I. In CM, deboard any Customer that cannot be confirmed as boarded.

6.2.5.8 LEOs (Excluding FAMs) – Operations Agent Duties

Revised: 12/04/2019

The following procedure is completed by an Operations Agent:

Preboard the Law Enforcement Officer (LEO).

Note: If the LEO is traveling as the only parent/guardian to a child age 11 or under, the child may preboard with the LEO.

- Verify that the boarding pass reflects that an armed LEO is traveling.
- 3. Escort the LEO to the aircraft and introduce him to the "A" Flight Attendant.
- 4. Distribute copies of WN-364 Notice to Armed Individuals as follows:
 - White copy to the "A" Flight Attendant
 - Pink copy to the LEO

Note: The Operations Agent retains the yellow copy of the WN-364 at the originating station. The WN-364 is kept on file for three months.

5. Indicate on the Dispatch Report how many LEOs are on the flight and their destinations.

6.2.5.9 Tracking Customers from Diverted Flights

Revised: 12/04/2019

If a flight diversion involves diverting to another station then continuing to the original destination (e.g., MDW-CLE diverts to CMH then continues on to CLE), Southwest Airlines must account for any Customers and commodities not continuing on that flight (e.g., Customers choosing to end their trip in the diversion station, Customers accommodated on other flights). This is necessary for the continuation of the diverted flight, and to ensure that Agents in downline stations are aware of the status of those Customers and commodities and are prepared to handle Customer inquiries. The following information must be completed for the diverted flight:

In Altea Customer Management:

- Deboard any Customers who choose to deplane.
- Open and close boarding, even if no Customers have been added or removed.
- The Customer Service Agent must note the Customers' PNRs with information regarding where they deplaned.

In OTIS:

6 - 30

- The weight and balance totals must reflect the actual number of Passengers onboard, including any changes to the commodity counts on the aircraft. It is necessary to note in the Remarks section of the Weight and Balance Report the number of Customers who deplaned and their final destinations.
- Flight Remarks must be added to the flight noting how many Customers deplaned in the diversion station, and if connections were made on other flights.

6.2.5.10 Tracking Child Weights on Diverted Flights

Revised: 12/04/2019

In the event of a diversion, flag stop, or fuel stop, the passenger count in OTIS may become inaccurate and must be physically verified.

If child weights do not populate in OTIS on diversions, flag stops, or fuel stops, the child weight adjustment cannot be manually entered in OTIS.

The Weight and Balance Report may be completed in OTIS without using the child weight adjustment if the aircraft does not exceed Maximum Zero Fuel Weight (MZFW), Planned Takeoff Weight (PTOW) by more than 2,000 lb, or Allowable Takeoff Gross Weight (ATOG).

If MZFW, PTOW, or ATOG are exceeded, complete weight and balance using a WN-1342 Manual Weight and Balance form and the upline station's number of child weights that were applied. If ticketed Passengers choose to end their trip in the diversion station, and ticketed children 12 years of age and under deplane, the number of child weights must be adjusted.

If a WN-1342 must be used instead of the electronic Weight and Balance Report, notify the Flight Deck Crew of the reason.

7 Baggage

Revised: 06/20/2013

Southwest Airlines' Contract of Carriage contains rules and regulations regarding the acceptance of Customer baggage. In accordance with our Customer Service tradition, however, rules and regulations do not cover every situation. Southwest Airlines relies upon its Representatives to make decisions based upon good judgment. All exceptions to these procedures should be documented.

7.1 Articles Accepted as Baggage

Revised: 11/06/2019

Southwest Airlines accepts as baggage such personal property as is necessary or appropriate for the wear, use, comfort, or convenience of the Customer. Articles must be enclosed in a sturdy, durable container that can withstand normal baggage handling.

The WN-929 Contract of Carriage Sign, All-in-One Banner, or equivalent local airport signage informs Customers of the basic rules about baggage, HAZMAT, and other terms of flight. The WN-929 (or its equivalent) must be posted in a conspicuous place. Where posted in bag wells, one sign must be placed at each bag well position.

The All-in-One Banner or equivalent local airport signage is used for stations that cannot adhere permanent signage in their location (e.g., common-use gates, primarily in international locations and Hawaii). The All-in-One Banner combines the WN-929, the TSA 3-1-1 sign, and the Carryon Baggage Sizing box poster on a single banner. It is rolled out each day and rolled up and stored nightly and contains both English and Spanish language.

Replacement WN-929 signs and All-in-One Banners can be ordered through Ariba Spend Management. In order to check baggage on Southwest Airlines, a confirmation number (PNR) must be presented. All baggage is subject to inspection before being accepted on the aircraft.

Refer to the current Contract of Carriage for more information.

7.2 Checked Baggage

Revised: 06/20/2013

The following subsections contain information regarding checked baggage.

7.2.1 Baggage Identification

Revised: 04/02/2019

Each checked article accepted for transport must have a complete identification tag, which includes the name and telephone number of the Customer.

7.2.2 Baggage Checkin Procedures

Revised: 07/01/2020

[OpSpec: A099]

To check in baggage, the Customer Service Agent must:

- Verify the Customer's final destination by asking, "What is your final destination?"
- 2. Verify that the Customer's name and phone number is on each piece of baggage to be checked.
- 3. Ensure all previously affixed tags (e.g., Claim At Gate, Transfer, Caution, Destination) are removed and discarded.
- Inspect the baggage for damage or improper packing and mark the baggage tag accordingly.
- Confirm with the Passenger that no electronic cigarettes, spare batteries, or power banks are stored in the bag and that the bag itself is not Smart baggage.
- Proper handling must be used for all items on the belt. Ensure all handles, hooks, and straps are stowed. Bags should be placed on the belt with wheels up and with adequate space between items. Tubs should be used for small or odd-shaped baggage such as infant items.
- Place each bag on the baggage scale and apply a WN-387 Heavy Bag Tag when appropriate. Refer to 7.17.6 WN-387 Heavy Bag Tag for more information.
- Assess any applicable baggage fees (oversize, overweight, or excess baggage).
- Confirm the number of bags and destination by stating to the Customer, "I am checking 'X' number of bags to..."

Note: When there are multiple names in a PNR, each Customer must have his bags validated separately.

- 10. Confirm that the checkin time is 45 minutes or more, or 60 minutes or more for an international flight, prior to the scheduled or posted departure time (whichever is later). Refer to 7.17.5 Late Checkin Tags for more information. Refer to 11.2.4 Non-Gateway Station Procedures for International Connecting Passengers CSA for more information regarding international travel.
- 11. Delete any additional bag tags not affixed to a checked item.
- 12. Hand the baggage claim check to the Customer.

Baggage is considered to have been accepted when the air carrier issues (affixes a bag tag to the bag) a baggage claim ticket for the checked baggage. At the time of acceptance, the baggage must remain in the air carrier's continuous control until the baggage is delivered to the baggage claim area.

Note: Baggage checked at the gate may be retained by the Customer until boarding.

Note: Assistive devices and baby items may not have a baggage tag affixed to them at the ticket counter and then given to the Customer to take to the gate area for use until boarding. Refer to 7.17.4 WN-392 Claim At Gate Tags for more information. Except in special circumstances, baby items should be checked to their final destination and noted in OTIS under Passenger Information.

Note: Forwarded bags, including any bags brought by another airline to Southwest Airlines, must be screened by the TSA.

Note: For additional information regarding baggage checked to or from Cuba, refer to 11.5.4 Baggage Procedures.

7.2.3 Free Allowance of Checked Baggage

Revised: 11/08/2017

Each ticketed Customer (fare-paying Passenger) may check up to two pieces of baggage at no charge. The dimensions for each piece may measure up to 62 in. (length plus width plus height) to be checked at no charge. The maximum allowable weight for baggage to be transported at no charge is 50 lb. Lap children are not entitled to the free baggage allowance (carryon or checked).

Assistive Devices

- In addition to the free baggage allowance, each ticketed Customer may check assistive devices for transport in the cargo bin of an aircraft at no charge when the Customer is dependent upon their use.
- Oversize and overweight charges do not apply to assistive devices.
- If there is no previous damage to the assistive devices, normal acceptance applies.

Refer to 4.3.15 Wheelchairs and Assistive Devices for more information on transporting assistive devices as checked bags.

Strollers and Child Restraint Systems (CRSs)

- Customers traveling with children are allowed to check one stroller and one CRS per child without charge. This is in addition to the regular free baggage allowance.
- The stroller and CRS allowance applies to any type of stroller (e.g., umbrella, full size, jogging) and CRS.
- The Customer may check the stroller and CRS at the curb, ticket counter, or gate.
- The Customer may purchase a reusable car seat/stroller bag in order to protect infant items from possible damage.
- Southwest Airlines does not assume liability for damage to strollers and CRSs. Each item must be tagged with a limited release of liability at checkin.

Refer to $\underline{5.15.8}$ Power Wheelchairs and Scooters, $\underline{4.3.15}$ Wheelchairs and Assistive Devices, and $\underline{4.2.2}$ Child Restraint Systems (CRSs) for more information.

7.2.4 Baggage Substitutions

Revised: 10/07/2020

For each fare-paying Customer, the following items may be substituted at no charge on a one-for-one basis in place of one of the two pieces of the free baggage allowance. Refer to 7.4.1 Sporting Equipment Guidelines for information regarding overweight and oversize charges that may apply to sporting equipment.

Good Afternoon,

We continue to see kiwi bookings out of the LGA market to ATL. It also is causing customer issues. Yesterday we had an issue with PNR 298A22. The passenger's booking showed that her final destination was MCO, however, when we attempted to gate check her bag as she was late to the flight and one of the last passengers to get on, we were informed that she was actually going to ATL. We were able to recoup the cost as we rebooked her for the correct flight, however, it is occurring enough that are agents are aware of it and looking for it. Were we able to do anything about this in this regard, if we are able to.

Happy New Year!

We still continue to see multiple kiwi bookings and the issues that come with it. Two were escalated up two me in the past several days. One is from today (PNR 47MS26). Passenger paid SWA $48.98 for the fair unbeknownst to them as Kiwi charged almost $200 dollars for the fair. Pax was booked LGA-BNA-MCO, however, pax was only going to BNA. When pax attempted to check in bag, that is how the agent discovered she used kiwi. We then charged her another roughly $200 some dollars today for the correct fare to the destination of BNA. Pax was crying at the ticket counter. The other passenger (3VVIXA & 3VQQH2). Pax was booked LGA-DEN-MDW on (3VVIXA), however, he was also booked DEN-PDX on (3VQQH2). The passenger checked in at the ticket counter and attempted to check in a bag. However, attempted to check it in to PDX and not MDW. Agent noticed the issue and attempted to charge correct fare for the trip. Pax balked at paying the correct fare. Pax then stayed at our counter for 1-2 hours between contacting kiwi and speaking with our agents. At the end of the interaction he informed our agent that he will be suing. Difference between now and when we first noticed is that it is not just the ATL market but now BNA and DEN. Please advise, thanks!

Subject: Question....

Hi Erica-

Last week, Jacque Molnar sent you a PNR that was a buy long/fly short itinerary. We are seeing these frequently, and the common theme is Kiwi Travel. You shared with Jacque will forward to someone for review. If possible, can I please get that contact name? The CSA are overwhelming us with emails and copies of itineraries involving Kiwi, and if this is something HDQ is already aware of, I will let them know we do not need any further information, PNR's, etc. The issue is the CSA are expecting someone to follow-up with them, and for now, we do not have any information to share.

Please let me know.

Subject: Kiki.com Checking Bags to Final Destination

Hi,

I am not sure if you are aware that Kiki.com is selling tickets without telling the customers that they are booking on SWA airlines. Only after they completed the reservation they are shown SWA info.

They kiwi are selling the tickets as no check bad airfares. The customers are not reading, and may not know what they signed up with kiwi.com. I have encountered several at our ticket counter, and they don't understand because their reservations only shows OAK to LAS or LAS to OAK not the final leg on the customer itinerary info. I reviewed the email kiwi is sending the customers that I checked in at the counter. Was trying to validate what the customer stated.

I included an example of kiwi.com, we find many have LGB as the final destination. They are charging more than our ticket price.

If you look at 8:50 am flight for Feb 25 you will see the proof.

Not sure what or anything our legal department can do to send a letter to kiwi.com they are using California as the finaldestination, and adding to our process in BSO.

My co-hearts have noticed more customers with this issue at our ticket counter.

- Confirm the Customer s itinerary matches the final destination given.

 Adjust the itinerary if the arrive discourse and collection of the confirmation of the con
- Adjust the itinerary if there is a discrepancy and collect applicable taxes and fees.

Note: Do not short check baggage.

As a reminder, Global Distribution System (GDS) issued tickets may contain other airline segments. Although the complete GDS issued reservation is visible in the PNR, Southwest Airlines does not codeshare with other airlines.

When processing a PNR, containing another airline s flight segment, the CSA should advise the Customer to retrieve their baggage in the final Southwest city prior to transferring to the other airline.

Subject: Kiwi Passenger Statement

Hello All,

Here is my statement on Kiwi.com website and the passengers who book through that website. On February 5th 2021 I experienced the highest volume of kiwi bookings in one single flight. Due to an aircraft swap, flight 6004 TPA became delayed therefore 10 passengers with final destination to MIA were going to miss their connection flight in TPA. Passengers were paged at gate area to advice them and find solutions for their travels. No passengers came up at the time I paged. About 30 minutes after I made my announcement a passenger came up to the gate podium asking why her flight was rebooked to another day. I pulled up the passengers reservation and it stated that her final destination was MIA. I advice the passenger due to her final being MIA the next available flight to that destination was February 7th . Passenger then stated that her final is not MIA that is TPA.

she was advice her PNR states other wise, however the final destination can be changed to make TPA her final destination which came out to be a difference in fare of $160. The passenger was very upset and paid the $160 difference. Due to CS&S rebooking all 10 passengers gong to MIA to a different date, I was unable to see the names. Then I thought of going into the flight the previous passenger was rebooked to and search if I was able to see who was going to MIA that got rebooked from the February 5th flight. I had found about 6 passengers left on the that flight which was a morning flight LGA-MDW/MDW-MIA. I paged those names at the gate podium and all those passenger were still at the gate area not knowing their booking was changed. I asked very single one of those passengers if they had booked their trip via the KIWI website and they all said yes they did. They all showed me the email KIWI sent them with their booking and they all showed the final destination was TPA not MIA. They were all advice they had to pay $160 difference in fare to go on the nonstop flight to TPA that day. They paid the difference except one passenger who was taking a bit long to decide if he wanted to pay the difference, that one passenger ended up missing the TPA flight and booked with another airline. all the passengers I came across with were angry and confused because they were all thinking their final destination was TPA when in reality it was not the case. in my opinion this KIWI website is hurting our airline and the SWA experience.

To whom it concern, As a CSA at LGA I had never experienced such a unpleasant times as customers book thru this website called Kiwi/Skiplag , When they check in here at airport thinking they are going to one city but originally the ticket is booked to another city but the main purpose is for them to deplane in that connecting city and complete their journey, As they come here they try to check bags to their final destination which is the connecting city not final destination as the ticket was booked, some customers cry, argue, get uncomfortable, Then we have to update their fare and have to charge them difference in fare, This doesn't look good for Southwest Airlines as an airline as well for us not providing good customer service as well not good hospitality and is not the customers fault is this website called Kiwi/skiplag selling tickets at cheaper rate.

Subject: RE: Third Party Booking Site

Just started to run into these kiwi bookings a few weeks prior to Christmas.

Yesterday we had 2 Customers on a flt MDW – SJC (stops in PDX) then connecting SJC – PDX. They got off here in PDX and we're scrambling trying to locate 2 thru Customers. MDW tagged the bags to get off here, but left them checked-in per their itinerary.

Another Customer yesterday was on a PDX-AUS direct flt that stops in LAS. He was only going to LAS, no intentions of traveling to AUS. Fare was $78 (AUS) vs $215 (LAS).

Subject: Third Party Booking Site

Good morning –

We're encountering several Customers a day who are using this booking site to book flights on SWA.

www.kiwi.com

The issues are Customers buying long and getting off in thru cities, or not taking scheduled connections. You don't know this is booked with Kiwi until they check bags and conversations are taking place on their final destinations. It takes seats out of inventory at the thru city and connection. The bookings sometimes have Customers on SW for part of their journey transferring to another airline, but the Customer doesn't know bags aren't tagged all the way through.

Not sure how this website is able to book on us, but it's spreading quickly and will continue to become problems for the network.

Hi Rhonda-

Jacque shared she forwarded to you a response from Erica Shaw (HDQ) regarding Kiwi Travel (buy long/fly short). She was thinking you might want to include something about this in one of your updates, etc. I wasn't sure if you will include this information, but if so, I was thinking it may be best to not mention anything about legal. I can see where this would go south quickly with an unsuspecting Customer who is told our legal department is addressing their travel/issues, etc. Just my thoughts that some CSA may not be diplomatic with their message. I was planning to send something out to the CSA/CSS as they are sending me copies of PNR (a lot!) booked by Kiwi Travel. Evidently, they can discontinue this process since HDQ is already aware of the issues and addressing it accordingly.

Please let me know if you will be sending something or if I can take care of it.

THX - Leroy

To whom it concern, As a CSA at LGA I had never experienced such a unpleasant times as customers book thru this website called Kiwi/Skiplag, When they check in here at airport thinking they are going to one city but originally the ticket is booked to another city but the main purpose is for them to deplane in that connecting city and complete their journey, As they come here they try to check bags to their final destination which is the connecting city not final destination as the ticket was booked, some customers cry, argue, get uncomfortable, Then we have to update their fare and have to charge them difference in fare, This doesn't look good for Southwest Airlines as an airline as well for us not providing good customer service as well not good hospitality and is not the customers fault is this website called Kiwi/skiplag selling tickets at cheaper rate.

Subject: Kiwi Reservations Update

Good afternoon everyone,

With Kiwi reservations continuing to appear, we wanted to make sure that all agents are aware of the procedure in place to ensuring passengers are traveling with their luggage. If you run across a situation, for example, a passenger traveling from LGA-ATL-MCO and the passenger states that they are only traveling to ATL..... You will want to reprice the ticket for the nonstop (collect any addition fees if applicable), and then tag the bag ATL. We should not be short checking the bags without updating the ticket and fares. If a passenger states that they will let their bags travel to the final destination without updating the ticket, we will advise that they customer will need to set up a Fedex account and work with the downline station to have their baggage shipped back to them at their cost. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to ask.

Had a canceled flight, applied for refund, said it would take up to 6 months, it's been 9 and have had no contact. I purchased a flight from JFK to Casablanca (Booking #XXX XXX XXX) for Friday, March 13th. This flight connected in Lisbon, Portugal then Madrid, Spain before finishing in Casablanca on March 7. The first two legs (New York to Lisbon and Lisbon to Madrid) were with Tap Air Portugal while the third leg (Madrid to Casablanca) was a separate ticket on Royal Air Maroc. I took the flight to Lisbon and when I landed, found that my flight from Madrid to Casablanca was canceled. Kiwi.com had said they would notify me of any cancellations and arrange alternate transportation. They did not contact me or even notify me of my flight cancellation. Due to the COVID situation, I purchased my own flight returning to New York from Lisbon to avoid getting stranded in Spain. Upon return to the United States, I requested a refund through Kiwi.com for my flight from Madrid to Casablanca which was cancelled. I was notified that due to the high volume of requests, the processing could take up to 6 months, but I was not allowed to contact Kiwi.com through email or phone for support because of the level of service I had purchased with my ticket. I have e-mails showing that my request was received and is being processed, but here, 9 months later, I have had no communication since April and still was never notified by Kiwi that my flight was cancelled or that I was due a refund. I will be attaching those emails and proof of flight cancellation here.

Desired Outcome

I want a refund for my flight that was canceled, as is guaranteed by Kiwi.com.

Booked two flights through this service which were cancelled due to pandemic. Refund request was submitted on May 6th, 2020 but I haven't received it. Booking number XXX XXX for a trip from Genoa to Los Angeles on June 5th 2020, which was cancelled due to pandemic. One of the flights was on British Airways, the other on Norwegian Air. Refund request was submitted on May 6th, 2020. I know for a fact that Norwegian Air processed the refunds for all pandemic related cancellations as I received a refund from them on a different itinerary. But I haven't received it any refund, full or partial, from this itinerary.

Desired Outcome

I'm requesting a full or partial refund for the itinerary that was cancelled through no fault of my own.

Kiwi has retained my refund from the airline due to COVID 19 cancellations; is unresponsive. Kiwi.com is a third party travel agency who solicits their services on Kayak.com. When my flights were cancelled due to COVID 19, I requested a refund. I have been trying to obtain my refund since May 2020. I confirmed with the airline in June 2020 that they issued the refund to Kiwi.com and Kiwi has not issued the refund to me. When you call, you have to enter your booking number before the system directs your call. If your flight is not within so many days of the time you are calling, they will not pass your call through to a representative - they hang up. I have tried to bypass this to speak with an operator, but without a valid booking number, I cannot get through. I can see the "status" of my refund on my account online, but the status has not changed for several months. It just says "Waiting for carrier", which is not true because I have confirmation that the airline has already issued a refund to Kiwi.com. In doing online research, I have found many others who are experiencing the same issue as me. There is a petition with over 10,000 signatures of others who have had their refunds retained by this company. When accessing their Facebook page, a majority of the comments are from irate customers

Desired Outcome

Other (requires explanation) I was not able to use the flight to Cartagena, Colombia due to being cancelled by American Airlines due to the Colombian Government prohibited flights to enter. The only resolution would be a refund to a flight that was cancelled over a reason not my fault with the airline having to cancel flight due to Government not allowing the flight to enter the country. I requested a refund because all my flights were cancelled from this company on 06 July 2020 for tickets that were issued for July 17th 2020. I booked my ticket on the 30th of June 2020 for a flight on July 17th 2020. I received an email from them on July 6th that all my flights were cancelled from the airlines and immediately requested refund on July 6th. They said that due to COVID it may take up to 3 months to process a refund. It has now been 4 months and they have not provided me with any progress in terms of my refund. This is completely uncalled for as i have over 1500$ that i had paid for when services were not rendered. I did not take these flights. I have called the company and spent 3 hrs on wait time to have someone hang up on me when i demand answers. I emailed them about the refund and they just shrugged it off and said it may take longer because of the current situation. This is absolutely ridiculous especially during these times. They cancelled my flights and have not given me a penny back. The booking ref number is XXX XXX XXX. I paid through my credit card. Please let me know what i can do because it is a lot of money and i am frankly fed up.

Desired Outcome

I expect a full refund of this flight. I checked airline policies and they specifical state that becuase of the covid situation there are no cancellation fees and full refunds are granted.

A refund request that I agreed could take up to three months and which their website would be no longer has gone into it's 8th month. I have contacted their "customer service" on three occasions, and I get the same repeated answer, we're waiting on the carriers. Many of us have reached out to carriers who have told us they have returned funds to Kiwi, and Kiwi is refusing to return them to the customer. I have reached out to the CFO  * he told me he would personally look into it, and, again, no response, that was 10-6-20. The CEO * LinkedIn page is littered with angry customers like myself.

Desired Outcome

I want a refund. If it is a partial refund, I should be entitled as to why it is such. I chose the refund category (waiting 3 months) to avoid additional fees.

Trip booked to Europe, $3,545, all flights cancelled due to COVID19, Kiwi has acknowledged they will provide refund, but haven't yet. See the timeline below, we're owed a refund from Kiwi, and they haven't provided the refund yet, and have stated that they are waiting on the airlines to provide a refund. However, I've called each airline, and they do not have anything pending, that all the money has been returned to Kiwi already. Timeline: 2/18/2020: Booking was made on Kiwi.com for $3,545.58, via my Chase Credit Card. March through May 2020 15+ calls were made to Kiwi, but they were only speaking to customers who had a trip within the next 14 days. 4/2020 We filed a dispute with Chase, which was ultimately held in favor of Kiwi. 6/9/2020 All flights were cancelled by the airlines, due to travel restrictions from USA to Europe due to COVID-19. Kiwi notified me that there was action to be taken for our booking (see additional document uploaded). According to the refund policy of Kiwi, refunds will ONLY be provided if the cancellations were made by the Airlines (which they were). 6/11/2020 I choose a priority refund, which cost me $22.76, and guaranteed a refund resolution with 6 weeks (see additional document uploaded). 7/17/2020 Another call made to Kiwi, and was told needed to wait the full 6 weeks for refund to be made 7/27/2020 The 6 weeks timeframe expired on 7/23/2020, so we called, and I was told that the refund is still processing, and we just needed to wait longer. 8/11/2020 We called Kiwi again, and escalated to a supervisor, we spoke with them and was assured this would be handled soon. 8/11/2020 Kiwi sends us an email that states "Proof of Refund" and the refund will be received within 10 working days (see additional document uploaded) 8/26/2020 After the 10 working days have expired, we called Kiwi again, and they state that there is NO refund in process, and they have no option to refund because the airlines have not provided the refund to them yet. They confirmed all of this in an email (see additional document uploaded) 9/23/2020 Contacted Kiwi again and asked for an update and they said they are still waiting on the airlines to return the money. The same story they've said the entire time.

Desired Outcome

Refund of $3,545 It is of my opinion that Kiwi has already received all refunds from carriers, and even though they've been hit hard by COVID, they do not plan to distribute any refunds to their customers, thus stealing our money.

Will not provide refund/credit for roundtrip flight from Tijuana to Cancun through Viva Aerobus during the pandemic when the Mexico border was closed. My name is   and I bought a flight through kiwi.com on 2/24/20 on Viva Aerobus airlines for a roundtrip from Tijuana to Cancun and back - flight dates are 5/13/20 - 5/17/20. My booking # is: XXX XXX XXX. This was during the height of the COVID 19 pandemic where the Mexico border was closed. I live in San Diego and we were in shelter in place quarantine. My flight total was $324.30. I paid extra for an expedited refund through kiwi.com and still have not received a refund or credit 5 months later. I have called multiple times and I have gotten no where. When I call they have you input your booking # and it hangs up on you saying they are only taking phone calls for upcoming bookings. There is no way to reach them through their website. The refund says waiting on the airline to process a refund but when I call the airline they said I have to go through kiwi.com and that they already have processed a refund for the first leg of the trip. My first flight to Mexico City was delayed 5 hours and my connecting flight was cancelled. I should be able to get a refund or at least full credit considering these circumstances. This company seems like a scam since no one is even willing to help and there is no way to contact the company. When I read the reviews on yelp they are all saying the exact same thing.

Desired Outcome

I would like a refund or credit for the $324.30 trip I purchased. I do not wish to use this company again so a refund would be my desired resolution.

A refund was initiated on 4/16/20. The estimated refund time was 3 months. Kiwi keeps telling us they're waiting on a reply from the airline carrier I, , and my wife,  , paid Kiwi for flights totaling $317. When COVID hit, we applied for a refund. It has been nearly six months and we have not received a refund. We have reached out to Kiwi several times and keep being told, "We're waiting on the airline." Our online refund application shows that the carrier has finished processing our refund request and that Kiwi is waiting for the carrier to send the refund. The application has showed this same thing for several months. The Kiwi booking ID is XXXXXXXXXX.

We want our $317 refunded immediately.

Unable to receive refund for airline tickets due to Kiwi placing purchase on their own credit cards instead of on mine. Purchased airline tickets on XX-XX-XX for 3 tickets from Cleveland to Denver on September 24th-27th. due to current social situation we needed to cancel the flight. We were unable to contact KIWI due to poor communication standards, so contacted United who said they would refund us but then noticed the tickets were placed ON KIWIs credit cards instead of my DISCOVER. The booking number for flight is XXXXXXXXX but KIWI divided it into 2 different confirmation numbers * and  which United said they would refund the money of 411.00 dollars but was unable to do so. Contacted Discover who did try to dispute the claim but they weren't able to refund the money. We weren't able to contact KIWI due to our flight not being in the rage of emergency contact. If we were able to get in contact with an employee at KIWI it wouldn't have been an issue or if it would have been on the original credit card there wouldn't have been a problem with the refund.

Desired Outcome

We would like the refund of $411.00 since we weren't able to utilize the tickets. We realize it was in September but we still deserve our refund.

Hello there, I am desperately reaching out since I have no other options left. I booked a flight through kiwi.com back in June. Shortly after that they canceled my flight. I was trying to get in touch with them for a possible rebooking or any other options but that didn't work out. The email is not going through, messenger takes at least a week to hear back from them and than will be an auto message that doesn't even make sense. Phone number won't go through saying: "I am sorry, we only assist passengers who travel within the next few days"Than I contacted my bank for a charge back but kiwi.com fought that and denied the request. After that I went on their web site and applied for a refund. Now they are saying that they won't process my refund because the charge back claim is open with my bank, WHICH IS FALSE AND NOT TRUE. I emailed, fax and sent them in messenger the supporting paperwork stating that the claim is closed and not paid. My bank also notified them and mailed them the paperwork that the case is closed and not paid because kiwi.com denied the request for a refund. They won't honor and every time I have the chance to get in touch they provide me different information and empty promises.It's been 3 months dealing with them and it's so frustrating, disgraceful and unprofessional. Especially in these circumstances. I paid for services that never received, why would they hold on my money and why they won't even provide me any updates or at least start the refund process. I will attach the paperwork and screenshots that I have with them. Hope you guys can help me! Product_Or_Service: Booked a flight

Other (requires explanation) I would like to get my money back since I was never able to use their services. Also I don't want any coupons or vouchers since I am not planning on using their services ever again. In addition when I paid them, I paid with actual money, not with a coupon or voucher so that's what I want to receive back. Flight number XXX XXX XXX

Received a refund for cancelled travel that was less than the original amount charged. No information provided for the reason. I made a booking for flights SFO-OSL-TLL-SFO for 4 passengers on kiwi.com on 1/25/20 (booking #XXXXXXXXX). A total amount of $3115.50 was charged on my credit card. Travel dates were 5/29/20 - 6/8/20. Due to Covid-19, the flights were cancelled and travel from/to US to Norway and Estonia was not possible. On 4/20/20 I initiated a refund request and paid additional $21.72 for expedited handling of my request with promised 6 week window. By 6/25 I had not heard anything from Kiwi, called them and received an email message informing me that they are still waiting for the carrier to process the refund requests. In July I called one of the carriers (Norwegian Airlines) directly and learned from them that they had sent a refund to Kiwi on 6/22. After multiple phone calls to Kiwi, a refund in the amount of $2191.74 appeared on my credit card 7/20/20. I received an email from Kiwi 7/22/20 informing me that the request has been resolved. On 8/3/20 I called the other carrier (AirBaltic) and was told that they never received the refund request from Kiwi. I had to contact Kiwi again asking them to resubmit their request to AirBaltic. Received an email from Kiwi 9/17/20 informing that the second Kiwi is unwilling and unable to explain why they have refunded less than the full amount.

Desired Outcome

I wish to receive the full refund for the booking that was cancelled due to Covid-19.

After we purchase three tickets to fly to Puerto Rico we were infected with covid-19 so we have to push back the date of departure and the return date about a week back when I call kiwi.Com to Make the changes they charged me $120.97 additional just for making the changes and then they decide to tell me after 20 days from this tickets being purchased that the price has changed and i didn't agree with because I already purchased the tickets 20 days ago so at that moment I realized that I could not pay $265 extra in the top of the $120.97 that they charged me for the fee so I decided you know to not go ahead and not make the changes so what I did is that I call a different airline and I purchase just one way tickets to go to Puerto Rico with the desire date because it was cheaper for me to do it that way, I call them back and tell them that they need to refund me the $120.97 for the change fee because the change was never done so they were not supposed to charge me for something they didn't do, so at that point they told me they were going to refund me $120.97 for fee of making changes because it was never done because I have to pay the $265 for the price change in order for them to make the changes, this is how they try to rip me off, so I said no I'm not going to make the changes, so I want you to refund me the $120.97 so they say that I have to wait 48 to 72 hours for the flight change for the $120.97 wish it was today on September 30th when I called them back now after I put today their asisted refund so they can refund me for the tickets,now they saying that the refund that it was suposed to be today, they are going to refunded at least 3 months later after a review, this is a ripped off, because they changes me for services that they never did and never did what they told me, and i New the money to Travel Next week apt least the fee for $120.97 todas and i Wait the 3 months for the tickets refund but nothing happends he Jeep Sting sorry sir, they never have to Walt 3 months to changes my car. Sold me air travel ticket that was cancelled due to Covid and refused to refund me. I bought air travel ticket on Feb 12, 2020 on Kiwi.com. Few days Devore departure I received text from Kiwi.com that one of my flights (ticket consisted of 4 flights) was cancelled due to COVID-19. Message also stated I have to go to Kiwi.com and chose one of the options given to me within 24 hours or I will loose my warranty with them. Went on the website, options were the following: agree to receive around $20 out of $500 I spent and close the case because I did not purchase any additional insurance with them, or pay them another $500 to be rebooked on a different flight instead of cancelled one and keep all of my other connections. The choice was to pick one of those or do nothing. Checked the rest of my flights included in newly sold ticket only to find out 2 more are cancelled already, bringing total to 3 out of 4 flights cancelled at that point. So paying more and still not traveling did not make sense. It also did not make sense to agree to get $20 out of $500 if there is no fault of my own. Tried to contact Kiwi, called, spent hours on hold. No response of any kind. Went to my credit company, filed a claim with them. Kiwi responded that they are giving me options without mentioning what those were and because I did not respond to the bank within 5 days with my side of the story case was closed and money sent back to Kiwi. (I was not aware of deadline but that is a different story). Meanwhile Kiwi changes statement on their website stating they will now refund people (I believe it was around time when DOT came out with the statement that people with cancelled tickets have to be refunded). It also stated that process will take up to 3 month unless we pay them some more to expedite the process. Under my booking appeared a link to request the refund. I did. After 4.5 months and one email stating they are still working on my refund reached out to them again. Was told my refund is not being processed because there is a chargeback from my bank that was never resolved. FYI money was immediately sent back to them after my claim with bank was closed. Stated they need me to get a letter from bank confirming charge as valid and then they will be able to process my refund. Got a letter for them, sent to them, got confirmation it was received and forwarded to finance department. Weeks of silence. Reached out multiple times, every time was told to wait and that my refund is being processed and I have to wait some more. Finally, received a response, that they decided not to refund me at all. Kiwi stated that because there was a chargeback from the bank, they are keeping the money that was sent back to them, even though they know I was not able to use my ticket purchased through them. Somehow I think airlines refunded everyone automatically, because I had other reservations cancelled due to COVID-19, and this is what happened, but Kiwi simply decided to keep it. I believe the treatment I received by the company Kiwi.com is unfair, abusive, and deceptive. I have records of every conversation I had with them. My booking number is XXXXXXXX.

Desired Outcome

Full refund of $508.50 for the ticket that was cancelled and I was unable to use due to no fault of my own.

I purchased 3 flight bookings with Kiwi.com back in October of 2019. In March of 2020, major changes to airline schedules were made and my flight(s) was/were cancelled. I had options to cancel, reschedule, rebook, or request a refund or credit. The situation was fluid at the time and many businesses including kiwi were changing policies rapidly. I requested a refund with Kiwi for all 3 flight bookings and have not received any money back from them since Mid to Late March when I filed my claim. I have tried calling them back but they won't answer. Emails are taking a lot time to get replies. I also filed a complaint against my credit card to help me refund the money from Kiwi. Flight canceled due to covid. Asked for flight credit. They have not given. Site covid disclaimer did not allow me to cancel. Blocked access. Flight was canceled due to covid, I attempted to cancel flight on website so I could get a credit or a refund. Kiwi plastered a covid disclaimer on the page stating that flight had been canceled. That disclaimer blocked me from canceling flights so I could get a refund. I spoke to someone and they told me because of disclaimer I would be credited in a few months. This did not happen. The credit card owner filed a discrepancy with the bank. He did not win the discrepancy, so I contacted kiwi again. This time they wanted proof that the discrepancy did not go through so they could give me a credit. I supplied this information and they acknowledged they received it. I waited and waited, and received a message that my refund was denied. I called and messaged kiwi asking why? They told me they needed the paperwork from bank stating the discrepancy was not approved. I told them that I already supplied this proof and they changed the story and said that I should disregard that message and that they were still working on my claim. I've explained that I need to rebook this flight because all the hotels and tours in Europe already gave me credit but I have a time limit to book. Kiwi is the only one that hasn't given me credit. Dear BBB, On May 3, 2020, I contacted Kiwi about plane tickets that I purchased from their company in May of 2020 when I was stranded in China during the outbreak of the Coronavirus. On the day of departure, the second airline would not allow me to transfer planes which left me stranded at the first airport of my itinerary. Due to the fact that I could not utilities the tickets that were sold to me, I immediately asked Kiwi for a refund. They informed me that they would get back to me but never did. Flight got cancelled because of covid over 3 months ago and they still have not issued me a full refund or given me any kind of credits. I booked a roundtrip from Toronto to Vancouver with a third party website Kiwi.com back on March 10th. My full name is   and my confirmation number is * The flight departure date was April 21st and my roundtrip flight was for April 28th. The flights were cancelled due to Covid and I called and talked to an Air  agent shortly after and they told me that I'd have to get the credentials from Kiwi.com to login into Air * and get the credits for the flights. On May 7th I submitted a refund request to Kiwi and they said they would get the credits from Air * and send it to me. I was told the process would take up to 3 months. It's been more than 3 months now and I still have not heard anything back or gotten any kind of Air * credits for those flights. My total for the flights was $334.92 CAD and I paid with my visa. Unfortunately, because they took too long to communicate with me and get back to me, it is too late for me to dispute it with my credit card company. This process is taking too long. Please let me know if there's anything you can do for me. I've been in contact with both parties numerous times and each time they say that they are waiting on the other party and at this point I don't think I'll ever get my money back or a full credit.

Desired Outcome

After many of my flights were cancelled due to Coronavirus, as part of the Kiwi.com guarantee, I was given the option of accepting a flight voucher for the flights that were cancelled. Since all the flights were not showing up as cancelled, I called the Kiwi.com customer support to make sure their information got updated, and they were able to trigger a flight as cancelled in their system, which increased my refund amount from around $1200 to just over $1600. At the time, I asked if I had 14 days left to claim that refund, but was informed that I had 14 days from the last cancelled flight. 15 days after my first cancelled flight, the $1600 refund was no longer available, and the refund option had dropped to around $1200 again. When I called, I found out that I had been misinformed, and that the refund for each flight would only be available for 14 days after the time the flight was originally scheduled for. I was also told that a supervisor would review my case, and get back to me within 24-48 hours, by email and phone call. I wasn't given instructions on whether or not accepting the $1200 refund would affect my ability to get the full refund, since they were supposed to respond within the time that refund would be available. However, it took months for them to review my case, and each time I called they told me they would be back to me within some amount of time, and they never did. I still haven't gotten an email, but when I called they informed me that when the supervisor reviewed my case, they decided that I hadn't been told I could claim my full refund within 14 days from my last affected flight, even though I have a recording where I heard what was told to me and I know I was. Even so, I was not given the email promised or any offer to reclaim the refund I missed because of their inability to get back to me within the promised time frame. My flight was impacted due to COVID-19 and the company showed no sympathy or viable refund options. Only read a script and did not offer any support. Called Kiwi on 8/25 asking for refund options due to flight time being changed due to COVID-19 and travel restrictions for Americans to the EU. Customer service only read a script to me stating it was a warranty cancellation and would only receive bare minimum refund (10). When prompted for flight information to call airline on my own, details were not provided. Option for assisted refund will take approx. 3 months and flight is supposed to depart in one

Desired Outcome

I am requesting a full refund of my tickets due to the fact the airline changed the flight times which we are unable to make and the Travel restriction on Americans to Ireland.

I have booked ticket on Kiwi.com on Oct 15th 2020, But due to Corona, The flight has been cancelled by Airline but no refund processed by Kiwi.com I have booked ticket on Kiwi.com on Oct 15th 2020, But due to Corona, The flight has been cancelled by Airline and on the airline website, I see that refunds has been processed for the flight for all passengers. But whenever I reach Kiwi.com they are saying to wait for 3 to 4 months for resolution. It's already been 2 months since flight has been cancelled. I have many reservations on multiple travel platforms, no travel agency making you wait for 3 to 4 months. I understand if there is a delay with customer service or any other, but if the flight cancelled by operator and I am not choosing alternative flights, I expect to see a refund or credit at least in an email from Kiwi.com, But I don't see any of that. Very disappointed with that, I bought multiple tickets on Kiwi earlier, but they are treating loyal customers as this is very painful. I would like to request Refund for $496.08 for my tickets My booking id at Kiwi is: Booking #XXXXXXXXXX Hope I can get resolution on this matter sooner.

The worst travel agency ever with the rudest  people who were not helping but were blaming us for their problem. Flight was delayed. If receipts are needed I will provide. Our flight was delayed and our vacation was RUINED. We were stuck in London for a day and had to stay over and purchase a hotel, we then had to repurchase tickets. We right away started contacting the travel agency and telling them that our flight was delayed and they said ok send email with details and receipts... Ok, we did that and then called them and they said to send receipts again. We resent and were waiting and then we called them stating we sent receipts and we are waiting for for refund. They started talking to us very rudely telling us why we need a refund like it was our fault. We said, we sent you the receipts like you said and we haven't received any refund, they started telling us they never said that and never received any email We were SHOCKED! We told them our flight was delayed and we had to repurchase tickets plus purchase extra hotel, food and transportation. The agent then stated for us to send receipts again and so we again sent the pictures of receipts... Well, we called again and again and again, and every time we call they lie and say they never received any emails from us and we dont want to help.

Desired Outcome

We are asking for a refund at least for the tickets and hotel.... We are so stressed out about it. $2,000

I was scheduled to have a flight to Santorini, Greece at the end of March. Due to COVID and the shut downs of various countries with different travel bans, I was unable to make the trip. I immediately applied for a refund and was told it could take up to 3 months. That was 5 months ago. I have contacted kiwi.com approximately twice a month every month since March in order to get a refund. Finally after constant deflection from kiwi I called the airlines directly. They told me they issued my refund back to kiwi on the 22nd of June. They also gave me the details of said refund, so I decided to call kiwi AGAIN. It is currently the 6th of August and I have yet to receive those funds back from kiwi. I have called three times today alone. The first time, they said they have not received any money from the airlines. The second and third times, they said their claims department will get back to me within 48-72 hours. I have heard this before in previous calls and am not convinced, seeing as how I was never contacted when they said it before. They told me, although I called in July, that no one had even checked on my refund since the 17th of June. How does that happen? They kept telling me when I called that the funds would be given to me immediately upon arrival to their company, so how do I still not have it? Desired Outcome

Other (requires explanation) I want the full amount for my ticket back. And I want an explanation as to why my refund took more than five months when they had the money as early as June.

Kiwi.com is refusing to issue a full refund for a flight to China I was supposed to take on 02/02/2020, Booking ID XXX XXX XXX. I learned on 01/31/2020 that I could not travel to China due to Covid-19. Kiwi is charging me $214 for a cancelled flight. This is absolutely unacceptable. I did not chose to cancel this flight. I was not allowed to travel into China and the Airlines are giving full refunds to their customers who were not allowed to travel due to the Coronavirus. There is no reason why Kiwi should keep my money when even the airlines are being generous in their understanding, especially when Kiwi advertises itself as having 'worry-free? bookings. I contacted Kiwi immediately upon learning that we could not travel to China. I was in the process of traveling to China to adopt a little girl, a process that has still not been completed, now almost 5 months later. My teenage daughter and I arrived in Vietnam only to learn that we could not continue on to China because entire trip got cancelled by the government. My family had to incur a lot of additional expenses to turn around and travel right back to the United States. It was such a relief to see that the airlines were offering full refunds since this situation was out of our hands. I cannot believe that Kiwi would treat this as if it were our choice. We are devastated that we still don't have our little girl and we have no idea when we will get to travel to China. The other travel organizations we worked with refunded our full payment, immediately and without any hassle, for flights that we were not able to complete. I am aware that airlines provided full refunds. There is no benefit to book through Kiwi.com. Customers who booked directly through the airlines were all refunded IN FULL if they had to cancel due to Coronavirus. I have continued to email customer support, but I have not received a reply from them since 05/26/2020. I have tried to call, but there is no answer without a current booking #. I purchased a flight from kiwi only after receiving assurances that I would be fully reimbursed if I had to cancel my flight due to COVID. They lied. Hi, I am writing to you about a flight I purchased in March 14th booking # XXX XXX XXX. It was a flight from Osaka to Tokyo to LA to Houston. The ticket cost me $883.76. I purchased it on my chase sapphire card. I purchased this flight while I was abroad and under the assumption I would successfully arrive at Japan, my last travel destination, but now due to COVID this has become an impossibility. I was forced to return to the U.S. and cancel the rest of my travel plans entirely. Having been precautious of such a possibility, I purchased this flight from Kiwi only after calling Kiwi customer service and having a representative walk me through the purchase and assure me multiple times my purchase would be refunded in full if I could not continue with my travels due to COVID. When this became the case I reached out to kiwi. Kiwi was no longer taking phone calls and were impossible to reach by mobile. So I sent an e-mail requesting my promised refund and was redirected to a webpage that offered me a $10.99 immediate refund or the option to wait three months. After repeated attempts to get Kiwi to follow through on their assurances, I am at a loss for words. Kiwi has blatantly cheated me of my money and lied. Their horrible customer service further alienates any efforts to get them to follow through on their word. And from reading other complaints it looks like I am not the only one. Two-faced business practices of the most gross and brobdingnagian dimensions, especially to cheat customers during a pandemic. A terrible company.

Desired Outcome

I am asking for a full refund of $883.76 to my chase credit card. As well as an apology for the many hours wasted. I've communicated with a variety of different travel agencies after having my travel plans changed or canceled due to COVID and Kiwi was by far the worst.

Kiwi.com notified me that French Bee Airlines cancelled my flight on July 13. I paid extra for a priority assisted refund and filed for a refund with Kiwi.com. I called French Bee Airlines and spoke to an agent who said I would be eligible for a full monetary refund since the airlines were the ones who cancelled my flight. The airlines said I have to contact Kiwi.com as they are the third party in order to receive my refund. I tried calling Kiwi.com but was unable to reach anyone by phone because their automated system hangs up on any callers not leaving within 3 days (my flight was for August 30). I sent help desk messages to Kiwi.com with no response for several days, and then finally received a generic message stating that Kiwi attempted to get a refund and provided me with two credit vouchers. Both vouchers are for separate amounts in euros - I paid with dollars and the vouchers do not even total the same amount. One of the vouchers is for a completely different airline company that I did not book with. I messaged Kiwi.com saying that if they are only giving vouchers then it should be for the original amount I paid in dollars, and for the same airline I booked with which is French Bee Airlines. I attempted to use the vouchers to book the same destination, and the website states that the vouchers are invalid. I sent another help desk message to Kiwi, and they suggested to try a different browser. I tried several browsers with the same voucher numbers and receive the same response that the vouchers are invalid. I contacted French Bee Airlines again who said they cannot use the vouchers to book my flight, and that this has to be taken care of by Kiwi.com. The airlines again stated that they have been providing customers with a full monetary refund as the airlines was the one who cancelled the flight. Kiwi.com now states that they will take up to 3 months to process my refund, and have no answer regarding the vouchers. I have tried multiple times trying to call Kiwi.com unable to reach them. Kiwi.com is practicing fraud booking process. The company knowingly provides the bogus itinerary and does not take any responsibility. I booked a trip on July 14 from XiaMen to SFO making connection in HongKong on 07/21. kiwi.com provided the itinerary. The flights are real, but HK has not been allowing any transfer flight from China. The information is not listed anywhere on kiwi.com. kiwi knows about this as Christina told me that she handled the same situations before and I am not the first one. The itineraries are bogus but it is customer's own responsibility to figure out they are bogus. The bogus flight itinerary was only exposed during flight confirmation one day before the trip. According to the airline  Pacific, the itinerary is put together with two separate bookings (individual flights). If it were one booking, it would have got caught by the airline itself. Kiwi refused to take responsibility and issue full refund for their mistakes and claimed that this is totally customer's fault not making sure the transfer connection is not restricted.

Desired Outcome

Full flight ticket refund.

The third ticket agency refuses to ask refund from airline, but airline told me I can get full refund instead. I bought a flight tickets from Kiwi.com, which is a third agent. However, it was canceled due to the pandemic. I applied for full refund on April 2ed, and I still don't get it until now. I called the agent many times during past three months, they always told me that they have asked the refund from the airline and waiting for their response. However, today I made a call to the airline asking why it takes so long, and the airline told me that the third agent doesn't ask for any refund at all. In fact, I can actually get the full refund according to what airline told me, but it has to happen through third agent. Then I call the agent, and they lied to me that the airline only can give me voucher or credit instead. The airline can do nothing, they told me that only the agency have the authority to request refund because I bought the tickets from them. I hope someone can help me get my full refund directly from the airline.

Desired Outcome

Schedule flight had to cancel due to the COVID travel restrictions Not able to fly into the airports on itinerary Canceled within 24 hrs of purchase I had purchased tickets through this company for a trip to a Gazipaa Turkey prior to the purchase of these tickets I had called and confirmed with the company that I could fly into the airports on my itinerary. After the company assured me I could transfer at these locations I purchased the tickets I then waited for the 24 hr online checkin when I went to check in I was greeted by a message from one of the airlines I would be flying with stating I had to register with an agent due to COVID so I called and waited online for 1 hour when an agent answered my call they informed me that I would not be able to take this flight due to the COVID restrictions that were activated by the E.U. He also did not have my full trip on the schedule he told me he only saw tickets for the first two flights and not to my final destination Also he told me the trip from July 2 to Dec 8 (That was not the trip i scheduled) I then called Kiwi.com and spoke to them they said oh no it would be no problem and that their agents were responsible for my online checkin and that they were only waiting on the airlines I then again waited to see if my tickets would come Nothing as my concern grew I again called the airline again the airline confirmed to me I would not be able to take this flight due to the restrictions they also informed me if I tried I would be turned back at the terminal the airline carrier told me I could cancel because the purchase of the tickets was less then 24 hrs Again I called Kiwi.com and spoke to the agent she informed me that I could cancel and how to do so I canceled and then called back to the airline and they explained to me their 24 hr honor rule they gave me the code and told me to call Kiwi.com again and give it to them to get a full refund I did this and Kiwi.com insisted that they are waiting on the airlines once again I explained to Kiwi.com what the airline had explained to me in detail about the tickets being Kiwi.com tickets and that the refund would be Kiwi.coms decision they kept trying to reassure me they are doing all they can and that they can't guarantee a refund even though a service was not provided due to acts of nature I do not understand how this is at all legal they are selling tickets and telling people that they can take these flights When you go to purchase the tickets the site has a space where it says restrictions but when you click on the space it shows you a blue bar saying travel allowed This is false advertising As of today I have No Refund. This is abuse at its finest this company is stealing from their customers and falsely representing themselves I canceled all of these tickets within less then 24 hours of purchasing them due to the COVID restrictions Please do not allow this company to use this pandemic to get rich off of hard working people. In the year of Covid, the awards for worst customer service go to...

Anna Tims

Sun 27 Dec 2020 03.45 EST

here's a whiff of nostalgia for my awards from previous years. Back in those days, we got exercised over airlines failing to pay compensation for delayed flights, obscure restrictions on train tickets and recalcitrant retailers. Then came Covid. Never mind compensation - the battle of 2020 has been to get hold of refunds for flights that never left the ground. Retailers have spent much of the year shut by government decree, and who rides trains any more?

I'm ambivalent about naming and shaming companies that face ruin. Some of the horrors that have filled my inbox arose because of decimated workforces and unprecedented demand. Some of the firms that have refused a refund were one payroll day away from oblivion.

However, failings that would in ordinary times be an inconvenience can be a life-changing matter during a pandemic. A pensioner left for weeks without a phone line was unable to say goodbye to her partner before he died. Jobs were put at risk when workers, captive at home, found their broadband cut off. Locked-down visa services have left families with no right to work, rent or welfare. And key workers face penury when banks won't refund savings stolen by scammers while they were distracted on Covid wards.

And it's those scammers who have been the biggest winners. When the nation locked down they moved online, impersonating banks or government agencies to trick customers into transferring their money. One vulnerable reader lost his savings and his house to criminals masquerading as detectives; an NHS nurse and his partner lost the deposit for their first flat after fraudsters targeted him during a hospital shift.

A pledge by banks to refund blameless victims made promising headlines; in reality, many have stumped up only after pressure by way of their press offices.

Travel firms have been among the biggest losers. Only a few have realised that their reputation remains their best asset. In the scramble to patch up shredded balance sheets, others have flailed to snatch every last coin, shedding outraged customers as they do so. Insurers who could have - should have - picked up the tab have fled the scene.

Covid, as well as exposing failing customer relations, has also been exploited to justify them. Before March, "computer glitch" was the catch-all culprit relied on by incompetent corporations. Now, when a utilities firm hounds you for a stranger's bill, or your pizza delivery goes AWOL, the excuse is coronavirus. Few companies have emerged from the ashes of 2020 with their reputations unscathed, but here are the ones which have made customer service a fading memory.

The Most Artful Dodgers

Once upon a time, fare dodging was a pastime for unscrupulous customers. In the world of 2020 it's the travel providers that are trying it on. Airlines dodged obligatory fare refunds by encouraging passengers to cancel bookings on flights which they planned to withdraw from the schedule, or by making the refund process so misleading that all claims led to a voucher.

Canny travel agents charged customers three-figure sums for passing on refunds received from airlines. The prize for the most creative dodge goes to the travel agent TourRadar, which told one reader that she would have to accept a credit note for her cancelled holiday. When she claimed the refund through her credit card issuer, TourRadar threatened to hold her responsible for cancelling the holiday it had already cancelled, and warned that she would forfeit the credit note unless she withdrew her claim. The company told me that the bombardment of messages were simply "recommendations" that she apply for the (already refused) refund through the tour operator.

That bastion of decency, John Lewis, sent an 80-year-old customer a £24,000 credit card bill

The White Feather Award for Desertion

Congratulations to the insurance industry. Most of the offending companies didn't even go to the trouble of subterfuge. They simply declared that their policies weren't designed to cover an event on the scale of Covid and ripped up customer contracts.

There are so many worthy contenders for this one. NFU Mutual refused to pay a holiday cottage owner for loss of earnings, despite cover that specified infectious diseases. It suddenly discovered a "discrepancy" in its policy wording the day I queried its stance.

"Cancel for any reason, no questions asked" was the slogan that prompted thousands of travellers to buy RoomerFlex's cover when they reserved accommodation on booking platforms. Indeed, it did not ask any questions - it simply announced that it was voiding all claims due to "unprecedented circumstances".

My favourite, however, is QIC Europe, which turned down a business interruption claim from hotelier CD of Powys. He pointed out that his policy included "notifiable human disease within a 25-mile radius" and was told, in a letter which detoured via murder, suicide and blocked drains, that since no one had succumbed to Covid on the premises, he was stuffed.

The Most Audacious Money-Spinner

While Covid has decimated sales, it's overloaded customer service lines as companies deal with the fallout. What to do? Online travel agents Kiwi and Opodo have had the same brainwave: to charge extra for after-sales support. Opodo customers are invited to pay £16.49 for benefits such as confirmation emails, "speedy" refunds and "preferential, free customer service". Kiwi charges £15.74 for "standard" customer service. Customers who balk at that get "low call priority", "no email support" and "limited support availability".

The Costliest Human Right

With travel banned and offices closed, the internet has been the only legal escape route. So all hail the Universal Service Obligation, fast-tracked by the government in March, to allow households to demand functioning broadband as a human right! Some took it literally. They thought it meant that BT was obliged to provide the service they already pay for, no matter where they live. However, as any fool knows, "universal" means areas where BT has got round to unrolling the fibre network and the "obligation" is to those with a five-figure sum to spare. Several readers were told they would have to pay up to £100,000 to upgrade infrastructure if they expected reliable wifi.

The Most Brazen Blunder

Who'd have thought it? That bastion of decency, John Lewis, sent an 80-year-old customer a £24,000 credit card bill. It turned out it had been taking money from a stranger's account for her direct debit, and, on realising its error, refunded the stranger and dumped two years of debt on to her without warning.

The Most Relentless Pursuer

Step forward Scottish Power, runaway winner for its singular pursuit of revenue. You don't have to be a customer. In fact, it helps if you're not. First the bills will arrive for years of energy that you never used. Then the phone calls, the debt collectors' letters and the threat of bailiffs. There's no point complaining as you face a wrecked credit score. Scottish Power won't deal with you because you're not on its customer database and the ombudsman can't help if you've not been through Scottish Power's complaints process.

The Best Stress-Stirrer

Champneys, purveyor of luxury and relaxation, knew just what to do when Covid struck and bookings had to be cancelled. It told customers they would not be getting their money back, although they had a contractual clause promising refunds for any cancellations due to exceptional circumstances. Instead, they could rebook and, as a goodwill gesture, it would waive its usual admin fee. It then closed its phone lines and chatbot and ignored them.

WARNING: Don't buy travels or air tickets from KIWI.COM.

4 years ago

I bought an airplane ticket from Trinidad to Copenhagen on KIWI.COM. It involved three flights - all low-cost airlines. I missed the second airplane although I could not have made it faster. The plane I arrived with were delayed and the following departure had been rescheduled. The airline had planned this for a month but KIWI.COM never informed me about it. The check-in counter was closed and I stranded in Toronto late at night.

I called KIWI.COM and asked for help. They wanted me to mail evidence of the errors before they would help me. I tried to contact the airlines, but could not get in touch with anyone because of the late hour. I called several times to KIWI.COM (almost 100 EURO due. roaming charges). I ended up paying food, a hotel room and a new, EXPENSIVE flight the following night. I also had to pay for an extra day off at work and did not sleep for two whole days. My vacation was ruined.

When I got home I wrote to KIWI.COM again asking them to at least pay for my expenses. 38 days later I finally got this answer (after asking numerous times):

"We are truly sorry about the inconveniences you've had. We find, however, that you had enough time to reach the plane. We understand your frustations and assure you that we care for our customers. If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact us 24/7 via chat, email or phone".

I bought the tickets on KIWI.COM because they were cheap. That decision turned out to be a VERY EXPENSIVE. And ruining my vacation... I strongly advise against buying travels and flights from this fraudulent company, KIWI.COM.

Facts:

- KIWI.COMS algorithms automatically composes flights from various low-cost airlines, that DO NOT COORDINATE rescheduling of departures.
- KIWI.COM (based in Slovakia) changed it's name in fall 2016 after only 4 years as SKYPICKERS

Yes the regulars on here all know about Kiwi.com and their shonky practices, and that their "guarantee" has so many strings

Pity you were careless and didn't search on here or other sites for reviews BEFORE giving them your money.

You do realize they and other shonky third party bookers are only in business because of careless people like you, right?

OP - thank you for taking the time and trouble to share your tale of woe. I'm sorry to see that this thread seems to have degenerated into an argument about the definition of "carelessness". Reading between the lines I think you're only too aware that you didn't do your homework before booking your flight and that you've learnt your lesson, so I think it's a bit sad that people are continuing to add insult to injury.

Now... how about trying to see if there is something that can be done about this?

The fact that Kiwi.com are in another EU country should not really matter as far as taking them to court is concerned... or so I thought, until I found this:

http://www.consumereurope.dk/Complaints/European-Small-Cl...

Denmark is the ONLY EU country that does not take part in the European Small Claims Procedure. However, Danish residents have the option of using a court in another country, which (assuming you're in or near Copenhagen) shouldn't be too difficult to do as all you'd have to do is jump on a train across the bridge.

The question is... do you have a case? And I think the answer is "possibly", depending on the amount of mis-selling that took place.

What was the route? (Trinidad to Toronto to Somehwere to Copenhagen - where is "somewhere"?). What were the airlines involved? How much time would you have at at YYZ originally (before Flight 2 got rescheduled), and how much time were you left with after the rescheduling?

Also, the fact that kiwi.com didn't inform you about the rescheduling could be relevant. (What have they got to say about that?)

Another thing... did you pay by credit card? If so you may want to consider a chargeback. They will dispute it, but you're in a much better position if the money is in your account and not theirs.

Thanks for being helpful Aviatrix.

The route was from Trinidad - Toronto - London - Copenhagen.

Airlines: Caribbean Airlines, WestJet, EasyJet

Originally I had 2 h 30 min in YYZ (Toronto) before next departure. WestJet has 60 min cutoff at checkin which leaves me with 1 h 30 min to complete check-in. As I was flying with different airlines I had to get my bags, go through the airport and to terminal 3 (international) and check-in my bags again. The ticket clearly states that online check-in was not possible. So I had to physically wait at the baggage band. And that took a loooong time. The plane was 11 min late (I got this info at the airport information desk next day, Caribbean Airlines won't confirm it. They keep saying that the plane was one hour early, which is rubbish of course...). Also getting out of the plane took a long time. Finally there was much delay at the customs, propably because there weren't many officers on duty late saturday evening.

The rescheduling was only 15 min. So with the 11 min delay I had exactly 2 h 4 min before next departure.

Kiwi.com has admitted that they did not inform me about the rescheduling. They write that "we are very sorry for the inconveniences that it has caused for me" and that's it. This is why I call them arrogant.

I did pay with credit card. I used my VISA card. I heard that there are some kind of insurance when buying with MasterCard. But unfortunately I only have my VISA card.

So what is your thoughts about this information provided here?

By the sounds of it you were travelling on separate tickets so you have no come back on the airlines. You bear all the risk when travelling on separate tickets.

As the buyer it is your responsibility to check out exactly what you are buying. AFAIK Kiwi.com are notorious at selling separate tickets.

You find TA after you travelled, it's a great shame you didn't do it before as you'd have found out the pitfalls of separate tickets and booking with Kiwi.

Note to yourself, "before I buy anything online check out the seller first".

I bought a set of flights from kiwi.com and they neglected to purchase them from the airline. I was unable to fly and was forced to buy another more expensive ticket last minute. They have NOT REFUNDED, let alone offered compensation. Booking reference number 4974824.

On the 9 February I was due to to fly with Tigerair at 0500 flight IT217 from Tokyo Haneda to Taiwan Taipei. When I went to the check-in desk, the airline was unable to find my records of my ticket through the ticket kiwi.com issued me. They were unable to find my name and any record of me having a ticket. I contacted kiwi.com via phone and the agent was extremely unhelpful. She continued to repeat the same mantra that everything was confirmed and I can get on the plane and if their was a problem it was with the airline. The airline staff also spoke to her but were unable to resolve this issue. After the stress of being refused to be allowed to get on the plane and no help from kiwi.com. I was forced to purchase more expensive flights last minute to be able to make it to my destination.

After several emails asking them to explain what happened. I finally got a some form of reply other than their usually pointless mantra.

Quote from them "We regret to inform you that we have failed to book the flight from Tokyo (HND) to Taipei (TPE) via Tigerair Taiwan and failed to inform you about it. The finance department is now working on it for you to receive a possible refund for the said flight. Please be informed also that the refund may take up to 30 days from the time that it has been submitted. Once again, please accept our apologies for the inconveniences you are having in this process. Rest assured that Kiwi.com do not wish for any of this to happen to your reservation."

After trying to get an update from them on how my refund was going and when it was due. I keep getting replies changing the dates of when I submitted the refund application and I have over 38 corresponding letters with kiwi.com as proof of what has happened.

It has now been over 30 days since I submitted the refund application and I have had no refund, no explanation as to why I am not entitled to a refund. The only compensation they have ever offered is a 20 euro voucher to use on their website with a 6 month expiry.

This whole experience has left me scarred and sad at humanity. I believe I have been a victim of a scam/fraudulent activity/being cheated. I would not wish this to ever happen again to anybody. So even if I have been left out of pocket and emotionally traumatised, I hope I can help others not go through the same thing.

I felt a great deal of sympathy for your predicament until I got to the last paragraph.

"This whole experience has left me scarred and sad at humanity." and you stating that you are now "emotionally traumatised". Really? Wondering if there is also more to this story if you have 38 corresponding letters in just one month since your flight.

'I bought a set of flights from kiwi.com and they neglected to purchase them from the airline. I was unable to fly and was forced to buy another more expensive ticket last minute. They have NOT REFUNDED, let alone offered compensation'

The first thing to note is that if wretched kiwi.com did not purchase the flights on your behalf then there should be no refund as no charge should have been made to your credit card. In terms of compensation, you'll have more luck walking to Jupiter than getting any from this company.

If you used a debit card, then instead of dealing with kiwi.com have you called your bank? If not then why not?

If no flights were purchased then no money should have been taken. If no flights were purchased then there is nothing for the airline to return to kiwi.com. If you used a credit card then let your bank deal with kiwi.com.

There is probably more here than we've been told especially

The Best and Worst U.S. Airlines of 2020

The pandemic made flying tougher on all carriers, but the ones that handled the challenges best tended to be the ones that had outperformed rivals in previous years

Ву

Scott McCartney Jan. 27, 2021 9:00 am ET

Airline customers didn't do much flying last year, but they sure had plenty to complain about.

The 2020 edition of the Middle Seat Scorecard, our annual ranking of U.S. airlines by operational performance, found Southwest beat out Delta as the best last year. American was worst for the second year in a row.

The results come with a giant asterisk: It was the most disruptive year of the jet age due to the tragedy of the pandemic. The number of flights tracked in the Scorecard was down nearly 40%. The year saw large-scale furloughs, massive

Still, despite what could have been a reset in terms of airline operations, airlines stayed true to form: The reliable carriers of past years remained more reliable in 2020, and the poorer-performing ones still didn't perform as well.

On the whole, without traffic jams at airports and in the skies, flights did run more punctually—the on-time arrival rate averaged 84%, compared with 79% in 2019, according to masFlight, Global Eagle's aviation data platform. The company provides data to the airline industry and annually has compiled an exclusive report tracking on-time arrivals, cancellations and long delays for the Scorecard. Data include each carrier's regional feeder airlines and international flights.

As you might expect, airlines canceled a lot more flights. The industry scrapped 6% of scheduled departures, compared with a more typical 1.8% in 2019. Baggage still got lost. And remarkably, given the sparse passenger loads, American Airlines still bumped—in what's officially called "involuntary denied boarding" from overbooked flights—more than three times as many as the rest of the industry combined.

Case 3:21-cv-00098-E Document 19-1 Filed 02/24/21 Page 559 of 571 PageID 731 Despite those blemishes, airlines ran pretty well in a pandemic. "Purely from an operational standpoint, the whole industry's performance was lifted," says Mike Van de Ven, Southwest's chief operating officer.

ILLUSTRATION: IVAN CANU

The story of 2020 for air travel, however, was complaints. The total number of complaints filed with the Transportation Department for the 12 months ended in October, the most recent available, was up 534% compared with the year-earlier period. Complaints about baggage and flight problems fell, but complaints about refund problems skyrocketed to 83,305 from 1,524. Problems with fares and reservations also generated more complaints.

Many airlines, trying to preserve cash, denied refunds when they canceled flights and forced customers with nonrefundable tickets to take vouchers instead. Some promised refunds but were slow to deliver.

United, which had more complaints about refund, fare and reservation issues than Delta, American and Southwest combined, changed its rules several times. It still United now says it should have done it differently. "We've learned a lesson from that experience," spokesman Charles Hobart says.

It was the first time since 2009 that Southwest ranked first in the Scorecard. One area of improvement was baggage handling. Because Southwest offers to carry two bags for free instead of charging fees for checked bags, it carries a lot more checked baggage per person than other airlines. That has slowed baggage handling in the past.

At the end of 2019, Southwest started scanning baggage tags as other airlines do, using hand-held devices to help make sure the right bag gets on the right flight.

The airline also started monitoring the health of baggage systems at its major airports to reduce outages.

Mr. Van de Ven says the two baggage improvements moved Southwest up in baggage rankings. "It was the best baggage performance in our recorded history,"

One area where Southwest didn't do as well as competitors was cancellations. The Scorecard, like the DOT, counts flights canceled within seven days of departure. Flights scrubbed before that are considered schedule changes, not cancellations. (That's for tracking operations. For refunds, federal regulations require an airline, U.S. or foreign flying to the U.S., to offer the option of a refund for any flight it cancels or makes a "significant" time change.)

Southwest was slower to make changes to its schedules than other airlines when the pandemic started to choke off travel. Southwest canceled 80,000 flights in 2020. Nearly 73,000 of them were between March 17 and May 2. Mr. Van de Ven says Southwest opted to leave flights in schedules when it didn't know which customers would show up and which wouldn't. Then to save money, flights with few passengers were canceled if customers could be easily moved to other flights. By May 3, Southwest had Covid-slim schedules published.

"Other people were doing the same thing. They just had schedules updated quicker," he says.

Delta still had the best on-time arrival rate, even though it slipped to second place in the overall rankings after three straight years on top. Remarkably, Delta months. The airline was generous with incentives to get passengers to voluntarily give up seats on overbooked flights so it didn't have to bump them against their will. One area where Delta was worst in the industry in 2020 was in two-hour tarmac delays, when planes sit off the gate with passengers onboard either waiting to take off or to arrive.

Delta says its long delays came mostly from winter weather in its Detroit and Minneapolis hubs. Typically other airlines rack up two-hour tarmac delays in the summer, and Delta ends up in the middle of the pack. But once the pandemic hit, summertime problems were rare so Delta's winter troubles knocked it to the bottom of the rankings.

"I don't know that we could have done a better job of moving quickly and preparing for the new environment in 2020," says Dave Holtz, Delta's senior vice president for operations and customer center.

The bigger challenges of the year came from thoroughly cleaning airplanes between each flight and getting the right number of flights to accommodate people who really did need to travel.

American, which has been last or next-to-last in 12 of the 13 years of the Scorecard, bumped the highest percentage of passengers and mishandled the highest percentage of checked bags (nearly seven of every 1,000 bags checked).

The Complaint Department

Complaints about airlines and travel sellers exploded in 2020, driven by problems with refunds for pandemic-canceled trips.

American says it was making meaningful improvements early in the year, but the pandemic stifled momentum. After dealing with the initial months of massive disruption, the airline's fall layoffs caused more disruption because so many employees moved to different locations to fill in.

Another factor: American kept a lot more of its schedule going than competitors, leading to higher volumes of connecting passengers. That creates more opportunity to misconnect baggage and passengers.

Still, David Seymour, American's chief operating officer, says the largest U.S. airline had 134 days in 2020 when it canceled no mainline flights and 44 days when it had zero cancellations among both regional partners and the main airline.

overall ranking. But I would tell you we made a lot of progress through the year," Mr. Seymour says.

American is deploying new technology to better manage overbooking and how many passengers it bumps from flights, he says.

American's best ranking came in its rate of complaints from passengers—it ranked fifth, up from seventh in complaints in 2019. Mr. Seymour says that was a direct result of trying to be customer-friendly on refunds and cancellations during the crisis.

What We Didn't Rank, and Why

Some of the most important elements of airline operations couldn't be statistically ranked in 2020.

The Middle Seat Scorecard ranks airlines on critical operational factors that are tracked by data firms and reported by the Transportation Department. But new factors arose in the pandemic that matter to travelers yet aren't tracked in any Case 3:21-cv-00098-E Document 19-1 Filed 02/24/21 Page 566 of 571 PageID 738 meaningful way: cabin cleaning, air circulation, mask enforcement, even middle-seat blocking.

On ventilation, a key concern for viral spread, virtually all Boeing and Airbus jets have robust air-circulation systems that use hospital-grade filters capable of capturing viral particles. There's no way to track whether flights are running systems at full strength, or how flights are handling situations when ventilation is turned off, like deicing.

Likewise, different airlines have altered boarding and exiting airplanes in various ways to try to reduce clusters of passengers breathing on each other. But there's no tracking of compliance or public evaluation of what works and what doesn't. Same for the various cleaning chemicals and procedures different airlines have employed.

Mask enforcement often varies crew-to-crew, with some flight attendants vigilant about getting passengers to keep masks on and others avoiding confrontation with people who drop masks from their faces.

Many airlines started blocking middle seats in the early stages of the pandemic, when flights were mostly empty anyway. As some traffic resumed, different carriers dropped pledges to block middle seats—Delta is the only one still doing it. But there's no evidence that makes a difference in the likelihood of viral spread on airplanes.

The bottom line: Travelers need to proceed with caution when traveling, since there's no ranking of health safety in the sky.

DECLARATION OF GARY REYES

- I, Gary Reyes, being duly sworn, state as follows:
- 1. My name is Gary Reyes and I am a Senior Specialist in the Customer Relations
 Department at Southwest Airlines Co. ("Southwest") with responsibility for the Proactive Customer Service ("PCS") team.
- 2. The PCS team monitors Southwest's daily operations to identify certain events that might impact customer service including, for example, extended mechanical or weather delays, flight diversions, or other significant operational disruptions ("PCS Event").
- 3. When there is a PCS Event, the PCS team researches the flight's manifest in order to obtain the customers' contact information. In most instances, the PCS team will proactively communicate a message through email regarding the PCS Event to the customer and, when appropriate, issue a travel voucher or other type of compensation.
- 4. This process is important because it enables Southwest to quickly communicate with its Customers impacted by the PCS Event and further provide customer service to them. The proactive nature of Southwest's communication as a result of PCS Event also reduces the potential inbound phone calls or written communication to Southwest's Customer Relations Department.

- 5. This process also benefits the customer because he or she is better able to understand the circumstances of the PCS Event and, in addition, often receive a travel voucher or other form of compensation to help mitigate the impact of the PCS Event on his/her travel experience.
- 6. On occasion, a PCS Event may also give rise to a broader company-wide discussion (through a "POP Call"), as declared by the Network Operation Control ("NOC") Network Director or Emergency Response Team. Just like with a PCS Event, in a POP Call, the PCS Team will obtain the flight manifest including Customer's contact information in order to proactively communicate a message through email to the Customer and, when appropriate, will issue a travel voucher or other type of compensation.
- 7. More recently, when Southwest identifies a report of a Passenger that fails to comply with our mask policy, the PCS Team will collaborate with Customer Relations leadership to communicate a warning letter to the Customer using the contact information on their flight reservation.
- 8. It is crucial for the PCS Team to have complete and accurate information on Passenger manifests. This is because, in the absence of accurate customer contact information, the PCS Team is not able to contact the customer to help mitigate the impact of the PCS Event on their travel experience. In turn, this also creates more costly and labor-intensive communication between our Customers and Customer Relations personnel. Further, given our new role related to mask compliance, the lack of Customer contact information also prevents us from issuing warning letters to Customers that fail to follow our mask policy.

9. In addition, during major weather events prompting significant operational disruptions, the PCS Team needs a Customer's contact information to ensure our Customers are aware of schedule changes and the options available to them for disrupted itineraries.

10. I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts and information stated in this declaration are true and correct based on my personal knowledge and reliable information I obtained as a representative of Southwest.
